A beautiful self-sustainable stone house in the forest, a real oasis of peace, a simply perfect natural property for all those who are looking for an escape from everyday life, the hectic pace of life, stress and noise. An ideal opportunity for a new home or as a good investment for year-round rental. Total living area of

167 m2 on a plot of 4,348 m2. It is distributed over the ground floor, two floors and an attic. On the ground floor there is a tavern with a fireplace and a kitchen, as well as a pantry. The large fireplace is centrally connected to the entire house and is used for heating. The first floor consists of a living room, a kitchen with a dining room, and a terrace with balconies. There is another additional fireplace in the living room, which is connected to the bedrooms and is used for heating. The second floor consists of two bedrooms, a bathroom and a terrace. In the attic there is a small office and a terrace with a beautiful uninterrupted panoramic view of the sea and nature. In the yard there is a parking lot, a storage room and a covered woodshed. The yard is landscaped and surrounded by high stone walls. The meticulously landscaped garden extends to 4,348 m2 and provides a complete atmosphere of comfort and peace, yet it is not far from the sea, the center of Poreč and is well connected to all attractive locations in Istria. The great advantage of this typically Istrian stone-rustic house is its self-sustainability. The house has solar panels and is connected to the city's water supply. It is located in great privacy, and it can be reached by driving on a road through
